Cultural Resources, Inc. works with communities on developing strategies that help sustain their local culture. As a non-profit, we do this through documentation and cultural inventory work resulting in the development of ethnographic marketing materials, cultural trails and guides, and traveling exhibits.

In intensive, community-based workshops, we help communities and groups identify, celebrate, and preserve the cultural traditions that make them unique.

Creative Communities Institute ©

Cultural Resources, Inc. has developed the Creative Communities Institute ©, a training institute that helps people revitalize local culture and rediscover a sense of pride in place. By teaching the basic principles of cultural inventorying, community organizing and coalition building, this training is an important first step in creating a sustainable vision that will guide local cultural and economic development.
